

Does your patient know when their catheter should be removed?

Catheters that remain in place longer than needed often lead to infections.

Talk through the Catheter Care and You guide with your patient and discuss any plans for removal.

For more information, visit our website www.hin-southlondon.org/cathetercare

Catheter care
preventing infection

